Description

This depiction of an elegant man from the very end of the 18th century has everything to seduce: in a charming little frame with gilded mouldings, in his fine marie-louise, this young character in a grey frock coat, pale yellow breeches and silk stockings, silver buckled pumps, holding a cane, poses... This drawing by Defraigne, finely engraved on fine paper by Duhamel and colored with wash, is part of the cahiers de la mode 2nd Year pl.2. ... A charming curiosity with all the spirit of the post-Revolution era and the evolution of costume per model presented. An inspired little decorative painting in good condition
