Description

A masterpiece of history and rustic design for your home. If you wish to enhance your living spaces with an authentic antique piece of timeless charm, this is a fantastic opportunity among my offerings that you won't want to miss. We present a splendid, large wooden cake pan from the first half of the 18th century--a piece of "arte povera" from Italy that captivates at first glance. Fully preserved in its warm natural colors, the feature that makes this piece extraordinary is its unusually linear and geometric shape. A structural purity that makes it incredibly modern and contemporary, perfect for elegantly blending into both a rustic kitchen and a living room with a contemporary design as a contrasting piece. With substantial dimensions and great visual impact (height 172 cm, base width 42 cm, base depth 32
