Description

Late 19th century glazed mirror with Louis XVI-inspired decor. A rich pediment decorated with a mermaid and a Triton with acanthus leaf tails. They frame a central cartouche decorated with cut leather and topped by a bouquet. Branches of laurel leaves, acanthus leaves and ribboned bows complete this upper section. The exterior frame is decorated with gadrooned drops and the interior with a string of pearls. Each corner of the glazing beads features an interlacing motif.
