Description

Small oil on copper of good quality and in good condition

The painting depicts the biblical story of Lot and his daughters (Genesis 19:30-38). In the center sits Lot, an elderly man with a beard, dressed in a blue and red tunic. His two daughters are on either side.

In the background on the right: A city in flames can be clearly seen collapsing under a dark, fiery sky. This is Sodom (or Gomorrah), destroyed by divine fire.

The frame is modern.

The painting is in good condition.

The copper measures 13 cm by 10 cm.
