Description

Very large garden vase in reconstituted stone decorated with mascarons. This elegant and imposing planter rests on a pedestal base. Vase and base are in two parts, allowing for easier handling given the weight of the whole. Made in the mid-20th century. Our planter is in good home condition and bears a natural "patina" induced by exposure to the elements, as well as traces of lichen, moss etc., giving it an even more antique appearance. Total weight: 52 kg // basin alone: 37kg // base alone: 15 kg
