Description

Petit Meuble d'Angle Louis XV D'époque XVIIIe
Charming Louis XV period small corner cabinet opening with a front door revealing an interior fitted with two shelves. Very handsome curved front adorned with an elegant scalloped molded panel characteristic of 18th-century provincial furniture. The piece of furniture rests on a sober molded base and shows a beautiful old patina. Regional craftsmanship. Regional workmanship in fruitwood, featuring authentic construction and beautiful antique joints. Its compact size and triangular shape allow easy integration into both classic and contemporary interiors. The cabinet retains its antique locks and key. Very fine piece of 18th century French regional furniture. Epoque Louis XV - XVIIIth century
