Description

This astonishing 18th-century rectangular zinc box with its lid adorned with a zinc fillet in the Directoire style is a curiosity of a trade object for storing things... . The interior contains two clamshell compartments on either side, and the pretty lid has two chains to hold it in place; unmistakably a trade box, apothecary, doctor... Time has left its mark and no one has objected.... Time has left its mark on this curious box, with its lovely patina of the centuries, a singular curiosity that doesn't cheat; it's up to you to find a use for it...
