Description

The Essence of Prestige in Antiques In the world of high-end collecting, finding pieces that embody power and history is a daunting task. However, this pair of bronze lions with gilded manes represents a unique opportunity for those seeking excellence. The pieces are in excellent overall condition, with a stunning patina that highlights every anatomical detail. Consequently, we are faced with two truly rare objects that are extremely difficult to find in the antiques market. Certainly, the value of these works lies in their authenticity, as they are antique and not new replicas. Monumental Dimensions and Artisanal Quality First and foremost, it is necessary to highlight the imposing presence of these sculptures. The works measure 220x60x120 cm, a monumental scale that requires adequate space to
