

Charlemont Young Woman With Flabellum

3 800 EUR

Signature : Charlemont Eduard

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Oil painting on wood

Width : 17 cm

Height : 25 cm

Description

Charlemont Eduard 1848-1906A young woman in Orientalist costume holding a large ceremonial fan/plume known as a flabellum in front of a large curtain, beside a wrought-iron stele trimmed with flowers. Oil on panel dated 1882 monogrammed EC lower right + signature and text partially visible .On back inventory or exhibition label: Eduard Charlemont, Austrian painter born in Vienna in 1848, his father and brother were also painters . He exhibited from the age of 15 at the Vienna Academy of Fine Arts, from which he graduated. After completing his training, he traveled to many countries before settling in Paris, where he lived for almost thirty years. He won several awards at the Salon de Paris organized by the Academie des Beaux Arts, as well as a medal at the Paris International

Dealer

Galerie des Tanneurs

Ancient and modern paintings - Objects of Art and collectibles

Tel : +33389458888

17 rue des Tanneurs

Mulhouse 68100

Exhibition in 1900. With works in numerous museums, his best-known work "The Moorish Chief", for which he won a medal at the 1878 Salon, is on display at the Philadelphia Museum of Art. Charlemont died in Vienna in 1906.