Description

Charming little secretary in mahogany and flamed mahogany veneer from the Louis Philippe period. This little desk, whose flap reveals a theater composed of a niche and three drawers, also has a large, lockable drawer in the waistband. The inside of the flap is covered in grey leather decorated with gold edging with small iron. It rests on four ringed legs connected by an H-shaped brace. Finally, the back of the top of the cabinet features a bumper strip for positioning and holding books. A space-saving, practical and highly refined piece of furniture.
