Description

Art Deco wrought-iron and aluminum entrance checkroom, with a sober, elegant design typical of the 1930s. The structure's geometric lines combine the finesse of wrought-iron work with the modernity of aluminum, offering a set that's both practical and decorative. An authentic piece with timeless charm, ideal for an entrance hall, a loft or an industrial and Art Deco interior. Era: circa 1930. Materials: wrought iron and aluminum. Condition: beautiful original patina, very nice decorative spirit.
