Description

Octagonal walnut and maple coffee table from the 1800s
Dimensions: Diameter 65 cm - Height 75 cm
Period: Mid-1800s
Elegant octagonal coffee table of Italian manufacture, from Emilia-Romagna, crafted from fine woods. The octagonal top is finely veneered in walnut with maple inlays, arranged in a refined geometric composition centered on a star, from which linear and decorative motifs radiate, highlighting the wood's natural grain. The central stem, also inlaid, leads to a sculpted base with three curved legs, lending solidity to the structure and a sense of grace to the whole. The balance between decoration and functionality makes this coffee table an object of great taste, suitable both as a piece of furniture and as a collector's item.
