Description

Design dining suite in brushed steel - Table and four chairsImportant dining suite in minimalist contemporary design, consisting of a rectangular table and four matching chairs.Structure made entirely of brushed stainless steel, featuring sober, architectural lines characteristic of late 20th-century design furniture.The table rests on four wide square legs and receives an inset white top offering an elegant contrast with the satin-finish metal.The chairs, of uncluttered design, take up the same formal vocabulary with slightly curved stainless steel sheet seat and back.A set of fine craftsmanship, with a modernist style reminiscent of certain Italian productions from the 1970s-1980s.Good overall condition with traces of use and micro-scratches from use in keeping with the furniture's intended
