Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Bronze

Description

Antique patinated bronze bas-relief depicting the profile of Alexander the Great, signed "Gemito". The facial features are bold and idealized, evoking the aesthetic of Hellenistic Greek sculpture. The gaze is directed upward, with wide-open eyes that convey a sense of ecstasy. The work was created between the late 19th century and the early 20th century using the lost-wax technique with a dark patina and warm tones. General Condition: Good condition. Provenance: Naples, late 19th century. Dimensions: Diameter 12.5 cm. Documentation: Certificate of Authenticity.
