Description

An antique Neapolitan sculpture in polychrome wood depicting a blessing child. The child has naturalistic, childlike proportions, with a tilted head, large eyes, and a frontal gaze, and rests on a gilded, carved wooden base. The arms are raised and open, with hands positioned in a blessing and welcoming gesture, so that the anatomical rendering is simplified yet attentive to the main volumes. The skin tone is rendered with pinkish color variations concentrated on the face, chest, and knees. Condition: Some defects. Provenance: Naples, 18th century. Dimensions: 25x20 H72cm. Documentation: Certificate of Authenticity. Assistance: We are at your disposal for further clarification or additional photos.
