

Important Pair Of Napoleon III Porcelain And Ormolu Bronze Vases

12 000 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Parfait état

Width : 23

Height : 56

Description

Height : 56 cm An exceptional pair of large decorative vases in the style prestigious 19th-century Sèvres productions, combining finely decorated porcelain finely decorated porcelain to a sumptuous ormolu gilt-bronze frame of remarkable quality. The ovoid porcelain bodies feature elegant decoration polychrome flowers on a white background, punctuated by large cobalt-blue vertical cobalt-blue vertical reserves. The ensemble is enriched with delicate garlands and gilded arabesques, executed with great finesse. The richness of these pieces lies particularly in their spectacular their spectacular ormolu trim: leafy necks, architectural bases, beaded frames and, above all, impressive side grips formed by winged theatrical expression. The quality of the chasing and the

Dealer

Hirsch Antiquités

18th and 19th Century Objects of Art Furniture - Clocks,
Ormolu bronze

Mobile : 06 09 53 69 26

78 avenue de Suffren

Paris 75015

depth of the and the depth of the gilding are reminiscent of the finest creations of the Napoleon III period. The gilded bronze mounts capture the light magnificently contrast with the intense blue of the cobalt and the luminous white of the porcelain. The round bases decorated with pearled friezes, water leaves and laurel garlands further enhance the majestic architectural aspect of the ensemble. This very large-format pair has exceptional decorative presence. Remarkable condition.