Description

Nice and fine coffee set in Satsuma hard porcelain. Beautiful quality for this coffee set from the Meji period with a rich and fine decoration on all the pieces. A decoration of characters, scenes of life with very refined floral ornamentation. The porcelain is very fine, so you can see through it (known as "eggshell"). It consists of 8 cups, saucers and cake plates, a large plate, a coffee pot, a small milk jug and a sugar bowl. Each piece is signed on the underside. Very good condition, I could notice two or three small shocks of 1 millimetre (which I could have camouflaged easily with a stroke of pencil but I leave the choice to you). Very beautiful service of the Meji period, beautiful quality.
