Description

Very beautiful 19th-century patinated bronze devotional statuette inspired by the models of Giuseppe Obici. The Virgin, in the attitude of the Immaculate Conception, stands on the globe, her feet crushing the serpent. The sphere is carried by the four winged figures of the Tetramorph (Bull, Lion, Eagle, Angel). The square pedestal is finely chiseled on each side, depicting the four Evangelists in meditation. Hollow-cast bronze piece, typical of 19th-century casting techniques, with the original central rod assembly system. Beautiful natural patina. Note: missing hands on the Virgin and hands and wear to crescent moon tips visible on detailed photos. Dimensions : H 22 cm - Base 5 x 5 cm - Weight 540 gr. Payments : Credit card, Bank
