Description

Antique chandelier-style earrings in the girandole spirit of the late 19th century, in 750/°° yellow gold (18 KT, eagle head hallmark) set with garnets and adorned with fine pearls. The model features a particularly elegant articulated composition, organized in two openwork registers holding several mobile pendants. The garnets, cut as elongated faceted stones, reveal a deep red hue with intense, luminous reflections, characteristic of antique jewelry with a refined, theatrical aesthetic. The finely crafted 18kt yellow gold setting draws a light architecture of small arches and suspended elements, evoking the girandole models revisited at the end of the 19th century in a more slender, airy spirit. The fine pearls add a note of delicacy and light, contrasting subtly with the depth of the garnets and reinforcing the refinement of the ensemble. Worn, these earrings display a particularly lively movement and a remarkable presence without heaviness. Their vertical line elongates the face, while the alternating garnets and fine pearls elegantly animate the light. An antique jewel of character, precious, feminine and highly decorative, representative of the late 19th-century taste for historicist-inspired articulated pendant earrings. Gross weight: 10.00 g Condition: imperceptible micro-scratches, characteristic natural inclusions in the garnets not visible when worn. Possibility of payment entirely at a distance via the site.
