Description

Louis XV writing table , High quality French work, 19th Century period Charming Louis XV all-sided writing table, made with remarkable care in the spirit of 18th-century Parisian productions. The curved top, with scalloped contours, is sheathed in burgundy-red leather decorated with an elegant gilded small-iron frieze. It is encircled by a gilded brass molding harmoniously underlining the curved lines of the piece. The waistband, finely inlaid with precious woods featuring floral decoration and stylized foliage, opens with a side drawer revealing a leather-wrapped writing tablet and a storage compartment. The fronts feature a superb rosewood and amaranth veneer laid in frieze, enriched with contrasting plant inlays. The set rests on four cambered legs with elegant falls,
