Description

Gilt bronze ornamental plate scene of fisherman in his boat Indochina late 19thAt once surprising and charming, this gilt bronze ornamental plate is, in the manner of a still life frozen in bronze, a beautiful genre scene from 19th-century Indochinese culture. This large plate combines the cultural and endemic aspect of Vietnam then Indochina & the quality of bronze craftsmanship by France, during its occupation of this territory it would name Indochina. Purposed for the decoration of luxurious colonial homes or for wealthy European collectors enamored of Asia in the 19th century, these plates with their richly detailed & chiseled decoration continue to be sought after & collected today. Very good condition, with small holes for nailing to the wall. Fast & careful shipping to France, Europe &
