

Chevrette Angoulême Earthenware 19th C

200 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Earthenware

Description

Angoulême earthenware Chevrette probably dating from the late 18th or early 19th century. The traditional shape typical of French pottery, was often used to store liquids, characterized by an arched handle and a pouring spout. This lovely piece is adorned with a hand-painted polychrome floral decoration, typical of the Angoulême manufacture.
