Description

Russian 84 zolotniks solid silver tea or sugar shaker, late 19th century, adorned with elegant cloisonné polychrome enamel decoration in the traditional Russian taste. The handle features delicate stylized floral decoration in shades of turquoise blue, cobalt blue and orange-red, underlined by an enameled pearl frieze, while the openwork upper part takes up a particularly refined radiating decoration. Beautiful craftsmanship for this object that is as decorative as it is collectible, testifying to the expertise of Russian workshops at the end of the 19th century. Presence of Russian hallmarks "84" corresponding to the silver title as well as goldsmith's initials. Dimensions: Length : 14 cm Weight: 49 grams Beautiful overall condition with light wear from use and a few minor nuances
