Description

Elegant Art Deco sculpture of a greyhound, crafted in patinated bronze with a refined green finish and resting on a marble base. The composition perfectly captures the fluidity and harmonious proportions characteristic of the Art Deco aesthetic of the 1920s. Signed by Catalan artist F. Galcera, this sculpture reflects the era's fascination with speed, elegance and modernity. The dog's elongated silhouette, combined with the rich green patina and contrasting marble base, creates a sophisticated decorative object with a strong visual presence. This piece is an excellent example of early 20th-century European decorative sculpture and will fit perfectly into Art Deco and contemporary interiors alike. Artist: F.
