Description

Impressive large-scale bronze sculpture of a Greek horse's head, inspired by the powerful, timeless forms of classical antiquity. Created in Italy in the 1980s, this work combines neoclassical influence with a resolutely modern decorative presence. The horse is rendered with assertive sculptural lines and expressive details, emphasizing the nobility and dynamism associated with ancient Greek equestrian art. The bronze surface has a rich patina that contrasts elegantly with the solid marble base, accentuating the monumentality of the composition. With its imposing dimensions and refined aesthetic, this sculpture makes an exceptional centerpiece for sophisticated interiors, libraries, lobbies or equestrian collections.
