Description

Large painting on silk of Mughal or Persian inspiration, depicting a lively princely hunting scene in a vast, lush landscape. The composition features horsemen, caparisoned elephants, tigers and courtly figures in a teeming setting treated with great finesse of detail. The meticulous workmanship of the faces, costumes and vegetation evokes traditional Oriental miniatures, with a refined palette dominated by deep greens and golden hues. The work is presented under glass in an elegant frame with wide beige matting and gold baguette. Very decorative, this large composition will bring a touch of exoticism and elegance to a classic or contemporary interior. Technique: painting on silk Subject: Oriental / Mughal hunting scene Framing: under glass with passe-partout and gilded frame Era:
