Description

B Franco: Oil on panel depicting a lively forest landscape, in an impressionist knife-edge style. Label on reverse: B Franco médaille d'or de San Rémo 1961 / 1er prix figuratif. The composition shows an undergrowth crossed by a stream where two figures with a horse are walking, bathed in beautiful autumnal light. The work of the material is particularly expressive, with a thick, dynamic brushstroke giving relief and depth to the scene. Work signed lower right, presented in an elegant gilded wood frame with wide molding. Very decorative, this painting will seduce with its warm tones and peaceful atmosphere. Technique: oil on panel. Subject: lively forest and stream landscape. Style: impressionist knife-work. Signature: signed lower right. Frame: gilded wood frame. Era: XXe
