Description

Pastel portrait dated 1906, depicting a young redheaded woman holding a black cat in her arms. The work seduces with its soft, intimate atmosphere, typical of Belle Époque aesthetics, as well as the delicacy of the modeling and the subtlety of the tonalities. The composition features a young woman with dreamy eyes, treated in a nuanced palette of blues, golds and grays, while the black cat provides expressive contrast and a highly decorative presence. The vaporous treatment of the pastel enhances the poetry of the whole. Signed and dated top left: "M. Mantona / 1906". Presented in an elegant stuccoed and gilded wood frame with an agitated decoration. Dimensions with frame: 42 x 34 cm approx. Good overall condition with slight wear and minor accidents to the frame in keeping with
