Pair of Japanese patinated bronze vases, decorated in high relief with dragons moving among stylized clouds. Asian-inspired work from the late 19th century, in the taste of Meiji productions. These vases feature a beautiful deep reddish-brown patina highlighting a rich carved decoration of dragons with finely chiseled scales. The neck is adorned with phoenix or fantastical bird motifs, while the bases receive a stylized radiating decoration. The powerful treatment of the relief and the decorative quality of the whole make them very beautiful ornamental pieces, ideal in an eclectic, Asian or cabinet of curiosities interior.
