Description

Silver carving and serving set, consisting of four pieces in its original box signed Robert Degersheim, goldsmith in Paris. This elegant set includes a serving knife, carving fork, serving spoon and fork. The richly decorated handles feature fine neoclassical guilloché and ornamental decoration. Two pieces feature carved organic bone elements, providing a refined contrast to the silver. The original box is trimmed in blue satin bearing the mark: "Robert Degersheim - Orfèvre - 48 rue St Sulpice - Paris". French work from the late 19th or early 20th century, in the taste of bourgeois tableware and reception sets. Dimensions of the box: Height: 5 cm Length: 35 cm Depth: 15 cm Length of the knife: 32 cm Length of the other pieces: approx. 28 cm Used condition with visible wear, oxidation and minor
