

Officer's Eiple With Imperial Eagle And Supporter - Ii° Empire - XIX° C

580 EUR

Signature : Couleaux & Cie Klingental

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Metal

Length : 92 cm -- sf : 91 cm -- lame: 78 cm

Width : lame au talon : 1,6 cm

Description

II° Empire officer's sword with Imperial eagle and scabbard, XIX°. Mother-of-pearl plate flare. Globular crown with Athena profile and interlac. Oak branch-decorated jointing bow and central ribbon medallion. Chased brass mounting and oval keyboard without counter keyboard, openwork chased with Imperial Eagle on lightning and lightning bolts. Floral curved quillon. Triangular blade marked "Couleaux & cie Klingental" on the heel. Leather scabbard with 2 brass fittings, chased at the bolt and bearing cideloid button at the chappe. Length: 92 cm Length SF: 91 cm Blade length: 78 cm Blade width at heel: 1.6 cm Preserved and used condition, in its juice and patina, see details on photos. Free shipping to France. International shipping, rate on request depending on country

Dealer

Le Lys et l'Epée

Art premier, Memento Mori, Judaica, Maçonnique, Militaria, Bijoux, Mode

Tonnay-Charente 17430

zone. View my other items by visiting my gallery and our site <https://www.IrisAntik.com>