Description

Superb and rare Kwandalha anthropomorphic vessel or healing pot, Cham-Mwana from Nigeria, in terracotta dating from the 19th century. This piece is to be compared with a similar model in the Barbier-Mueller collection in Geneva, referenced in the inventory and in the book devoted to this museum's African terracottas. Beautiful crusty patina. Good condition except for an old lack at the eye level, without affecting the beautiful aesthetics. Dimension: Height 27 (cm) without the wooden ring serving as its base. We take particular care with our packaging by using optimum protection. Shipping includes insurance. Shipping rates: Metropolitan France: 25 euros, European Union countries and Switzerland: 35 euros, Eastern Europe and Maghreb countries: 65
