Description

Large, handsome ex-voto depicting the De l'Hormerie family estate and a view of the Château facade, annotated and dating from 1840. Presented in its period frame, this mysterious canvas, steeped in history, is a touching work of art, a souvenir of a family grateful to its parish, a curiosity from the reign of Louis Philippe, painted with a naiveté typical of the period, where the spirit of Romanticism adds to this delicate and sensitive work of art; a well-crafted, decorative painting with the patina of time, which gives it its charm as a curiosity typical of the 19th century.
