Description

Nice and rare art-deco service in etched glass by Daum. Typical of the art-deco period, this service has very geometrical ovoid shapes with strongly acid-etched striations that give this granite background. Each piece reflects the rays of light particularly well, giving the impression that the service is on fire. In a golden-yellow tone, we find a decanter and its stopper (21 cm), with 4 heights of glasses. 4 in the largest model, 4 in the model below, 3 in the model still below and a very small one. Each piece is signed "Daum "croix de lorraine" nancy" under the base. Model clearly referenced. All in perfect condition, created circa 1930. Superb art-deco service, already a century old and ultra-modern!
