Description

Beautiful black patina bronze by French sculptor Claude Michel, known as Clodion. Large-scale model featuring a young faun in the process of waking up, rubbing his eyes with his left hand. This faun is seated on a sheep's fleece resting on a pebble column, legs crossed and carrying a panpipes slung over his shoulder. Sculpture of quite exceptional power for its size, patina and realism. Clodion signature on the terrace. Very good condition, with a junction on the crossed leg that gives the piece a significant offset. Height 61cm
