Description

Dimensions: 15.5 cm (h) - 8 cm (Ø) Elegant female figure in finely modeled Capodimonte porcelain, presented on a chased gilt bronze frame from the XIXe period. The piece captivates with its fresh polychromy, delicate face and fine floral details, typical of the most sought-after Neapolitan workshops. The richly openwork, mercury-gilded mounting creates a refined dialogue between the luminous whiteness of the porcelain and the brilliance of the bronze, giving the ensemble a decorative presence rare for an intimate format. Condition: perfect, with no missing parts, no cracks, no restoration - exceptional condition for a piece of this period. Signed at the base, it testifies to the sought-after craftsmanship of the Neapolitan workshops and their mastery of the small sculptural
