Description

A remarkable Flemish school, this oil on panel of Jesus carrying his Cross. The profusion of expressive, polychromatic figures is a constant in the work of Franz Francken. In the work of Franz Francken (1581-1642). The oak panel is composed of four unparqueted boards and bears the Antwerp guild mark on the back. The gilded wood pastel frame wood, French Louis XV period, is slightly missing a few spots. Of museum quality, a second, almost similar version of identical dimensions is known. It is preserved at the Musée des Beaux-Arts in Rouen as the last photograph shows. The details of our representation are more finely realized, and the background is enriched, particularly on the right-hand side of the work. Very good
