Description

Refined pair of solid walnut bedside tables, finely carved. The tables feature semi-curved legs and a slightly elongated rectangular top. Both feature a drawer, opened via a small lost-wax bronze knob, ergonomic and practical for storing items. The drawer is also decorated and embellished with geometric friezes applied to the front, which contribute to the overall elegance. This pair of bedside tables exudes great taste and refinement, adding a touch of class and antique style to any room. Tuscan manufacture from the Directoire period, around the end of the 18th century.
