Description

An elegant Victorian-era spark guard made of painted cast iron, characterized by a refined rounded shape and rich polychrome decorations in an Oriental style. The black lacquered surface is embellished with floral motifs and birds painted in shades of gold, copper, and green--elements typical of the English decorative style of the second half of the 19th century. The structure rests on refined, finely modeled cast iron feet, which lend the piece great elegance and a striking presence. Ideal as a decorative element for fireplaces, classic settings, or interiors with an eclectic and antique-inspired style. In good overall condition considering its age, with natural signs of wear that attest to its authenticity and historical charm.
