Description

Elegant carved wood banquette, resting on four tapered and fluted legs, in a refined neoclassical spirit. The structure is finely crafted with turned and carved elements, particularly on the uprights and open armrests, bringing rhythm and lightness to the whole. The belt is adorned with a delicately chiseled decoration. The cane seat, in very fine condition, lends the piece great elegance as well as comfort of use, while emphasizing its timeless character. A decorative and functional piece, ideal as the end of a bed, in an entryway or as an occasional seat in a classic or contemporary interior. Era: 20th century Materials: carved wood and caning Condition: very good overall condition, caning in fine condition. Dimensions: Height: 70 cm Width: 61 cm Depth: 39 cm Seat height: 48 cm
