Description

Elegant printed fabric curtain from the house of Marignan, adorned with a superb naturalistic décor featuring a multitude of refined birds: pheasants with long, shimmering feathers, partridges, lapwings and birds of the undergrowth, delicately spread out on a luminous ivory background. This charming fabric evokes the elegant world of country homes and classic residences, with a highly refined decorative touch. The subtle colors - deep reds, celadon greens, grayed blues and mordor tones - bring a great deal of softness and character to the ensemble. The fall of the fabric is very soft. The fall of the fabric is particularly elegant and will allow for use as a curtain, wall hanging, as well as a beautiful interior design project. Dimensions: 268 cm x 123 cm Good overall condition.
