Description

Magnificent and rare 19th century cigar box in marquetry and precious woods. Remarkable carving of hunting scenes with wild boar, deer and other game. Mix of exotic woods. Inside, storage for 60 cigars in blond Hungarian oak. And a drawer for accessories. Meticulous and delicate workmanship. Mounted on engraved brass hinges. Complete with lock and key. Slight lack of brass pearls on the lid! Not very visible! Sold as is! With its original antique patina .
Dimensions: 32 cm long by 23 cm wide and 21 cm high! A superb, highly decorative and, of course, functional box for tobacco lovers!
