Description

China, 1950's/1960's, Pair of identical porcelain pots with lids in form and decoration, in porcelain. This is a true pair, a counterpart, as the position of the various elements is perfectly reversed. The pieces feature rich polychrome enamel decoration on glaze. The rim of the top is delicately adorned with a frieze. The base features a stylized vegetal frieze. At the top of the body runs a vegetal decoration adorned with branches. On the body we discover a decoration in reserve featuring female figures and lotus flowers. Dimension: Height 28 x Width 13.5 (cm). Good condition. The two potiches rest on blackened wooden bases.
