

An Antique Oil Painting On Panel Depicting A View Of Via Chiaia In Naples, 19th Century

1 500 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Oil painting

Description

Antique oil painting on panel depicting a view of Via Chiaia in Naples, with a period gilded wooden frame. The painting depicts a lively glimpse of the Riviera di Chiaia in Naples, one of the most famous and elegant spots in the city. The technique used is consistent with the artist's mature style, characterized by rapid, textured Impressionist brushstrokes. Biography. Nicolas De Corsi (Odessa, 1882 - Torre del Greco, 1956) was an Italian painter. The son of the Italian consul in the Ukrainian city of Odessa and Emma Suppinich, he was born in 1882. A year after his birth, his father died, and two years later his mother remarried the Spanish nobleman Gutierrez, who was also a consul in Russia. The following year, the entire family moved to Madrid, where the young painter received his

Dealer

Borrelli Antichità

Antique business specialized in 17-19th century furnitures

Tel : 00393397587690

Mobile : 0039818472835

Via Nazionale 257

Torre del Greco(na)italy 80059

training. In 1896, following the death of his stepfather, he traveled to Italy, specifically to Rome, where he first attended the private Academy of St. Lucia (from which he was later expelled) and then the evening school of the Artistic Circle, and to Naples. In 1900, the painter went on vacation to Torre del Greco (an event that proved to be very important in the painter's life). He subsequently participated in numerous exhibitions (National Fine Arts Exhibition in Milan; Autumn Salon in Paris; 9th Venice International Exhibition; Quadriennale in Rome). In 1930, his mother passed away, and in 1934, the painter moved permanently to Torre del Greco. He left the town near Vesuvius only in 1940, when he was evacuated to Vico Equense, returning in 1945. He died in 1956 at the age of seventy-four, at the home of his student Antonio Madonna. Provenance: Naples, 19th century. General Condition: Good condition. Dimensions: 37x34cm. Documentation: Certificate of Authenticity. Assistance: We are at your disposal for further clarification or additional photographs. Shipping: Throughout Italy, Europe, and the rest of the world at very reasonable prices, with maximum security and tracking. Shipping will be arranged privately and will not be expensive. We wish you a good day. Borrelli Antiques.