Description

Solid walnut round extendable dining table - Louis-Philippe period
Elegant solid walnut dining table resting on six fluted turned legs, Louis-Philippe period. This handsome antique table features a round top 125 cm in diameter and an important sliding opening system allowing the addition of several extensions. It is currently presented with one extension and develops a total length of 270 cm when opened. Beautiful craftsmanship, excellent stability thanks to its six-legged base, and superb antique patina of solid walnut. A piece of character ideal for a grand residence, family home or antique gallery.
