Description

Elegant pair of large Greek-style vases sculpted in black marble in the 20th century. Inspired by the refined forms of classical antiquity, these sculptural vases feature harmonious proportions and a timeless silhouette evocative of the decorative arts of ancient Greece. The deep black marble reveals magnificent natural veining and a polished surface that underscores the monumental, sophisticated character of this pair. Their strong architectural presence makes them ideal decorative pieces for classical, neoclassical or contemporary interiors. With their impressive dimensions and the nobility of the material, these vases combine the elegance of antique inspiration with the decorative refinement of 20th-century craftsmanship. Origine : Greece or Italy Epoque : XXth century Material : Black marble Dimensions
