Description

bronze sculpture of a Roman emperor, inspired by the powerful aesthetics of Greco-Roman antiquity. Created in Italy in the 1980s, this work testifies to the enduring fascination with classical sculpture and imperial portraiture.The figure is rendered with marked facial features, ideal proportions and dignified expression, characteristic of ancient Roman representations of emperors and statesmen. Cast in bronze with a rich patina, the sculpture has a remarkable decorative presence and timeless classical elegance.The monumental dimensions and refined neoclassical character make it an exceptional centerpiece for sophisticated interiors, libraries, entrance halls or classically inspired art collections.Origin: ItalyEra: 1980sStyle: Neo-GreekMaterial: Bronze with
