Description

Pair of pierced-ear flea-sized earrings in 750/°° white gold (18 KT, eagle head hallmark), each adorned with a cabochon emerald in a closed setting. These earrings seduce with their sober, contemporary yet timeless aesthetic. The white gold closed setting elegantly underscores the softness of the lines and particularly highlights the curve of the emeralds, here cut as cabochons rather than faceted. This cut gives the stones a muted, velvety sparkle, softer and more diffused than that of faceted emeralds, while revealing delicate shades of deep, luminous green depending on the light. The stones thus offer a refined, discreet presence, ideal for everyday wear as well as for a more dressed-up silhouette. The sleek, almost minimalist design of the model accentuates its modern allure and leaves plenty of room for the natural beauty of the emeralds. However, the photographs fail to faithfully reproduce the true tone and depth of the stones: these emeralds truly deserve to be discovered in person in the boutique in order to fully appreciate their chromatic richness, subtle transparency as well as the softness of their natural brilliance. These elements/"boxes" of settings have been mounted on rods to which are attached the most secure "alpa" type clasps available, with each rod featuring a safety catch. Their harmonious proportions mean that these buckles sit ideally on the lobe and have no prominent effect on their base. Total emerald weight estimated at approx. 5.70 ct Gross weight: 3.59 g Condition: imperceptible micro-scratches on the gold parts, characteristic natural inclusions in the emeralds visible by transparency in the photos but not perceptible when worn Possibility of settlement entirely remotely via the site.
