Description

Exceptional complete set in 12 volumes of the Holy Bible, translated by M. Le Maistre de Sacy. This bilingual (Latin-French) edition is considered to be a monument to the illustration and typography of the late 18th century. It is a masterpiece of the late 18th century. Louis-Isaac Lemaistre de Sacy was a Port-Royal theologian. The illustration includes magnificent hors-texte figures engraved by great masters (including Ponce) after Marillier's original drawings. Each volume is bound in period-style full calf, richly decorated ribbed spines, titles and [gilt/marbled] edges. Bindings in used condition, interior pages in good condition, possibility of sending more photos or send a whatsapp video. Delivery with adapted protections, by
