Description

Magnificent Regency-style console from the early 19th century in walnut and richly carved. This superb piece combines elegance, character and craftsmanship, with beautiful carved details that give it a remarkable presence. It is topped by a thick, original marble top, perfectly matched to the ensemble and in excellent condition. Its great advantage lies in its exceptional solidity: resting on 4 feet, this console is very stable and therefore requires no wall mounting. The piece of furniture is in very good condition and will be an asset to a classic, chic or eclectic interior. An authentic piece for lovers of antique furniture.
